Speaker: Paul O'Kelly, Founding Partner O'KellySutton

ABOUT THIS EVENT:

Paul O'Kelly will speak on Appreciative Inquiry (AI), and how he has embedded AI and positive psychology into his work in strategic thinking, planning and enabling high performance. Paul has used AI with Bord na Mona, GAA, and Ordnance Survey Ireland, Dubai Government and Sports Council and dozens of fast growing companies in Ireland and abroad. He has designed and facilitated summit workshops for more than 400 people, and as many engaged up to 8,000 people in a single project.

In this workshop Paul will provide:

- An understanding of Appreciative Inquiry
- Insights into the practical application of AI in Strategic Thinking and Planning, Leadership and Team Development and "Appreciative Coaching"

SPEAKER BIO:

Paul O'Kelly is the founding partner at O'KellySutton, transformation, growth and high performance specialists. O'KellySutton are working with clients in Ireland, US, Canada, Finland, Denmark, Switzerland, UK, Middle East and on projects in many more countries. Paul is a highly experienced facilitator in strategic thinking and planning, values development, group goal setting and whole organisation alignment. This work has ranged from leadership teams with global responsibility, to some of Ireland's oldest indigenous companies including universities and local authorities, the managements of sports teams (Gaelic football, rugby union and sailing), national charities and national sporting organisations. Email: okelly@okellysutton.ie; Website: www.okellysutton.ie
