

ECR ACCREDITATION COURSE – May 2012

We held another very successful ECR Accreditation Course in January and we are therefore delighted to be able to announce that we will be running another ECR Accreditation Course in May in association with RocheMartin. We received some excellent feedback from attendees of the last course:

"Thanks for such stimulating and enjoyable learning. The ECR is much more than a psychometric tool; it gets to the heart of what emotionally intelligent leadership is in practice. Both focused and flexible, it provides strategies to develop Emotional Capital – an essential quality for leaders in business today".

Sue Oliver, Business & Coaching Psychologist

"I've had the most inspirational 3 days thanks to all of you and of course thanks to Martyn's generous, stimulating and thought-provoking introduction to this amazing tool. I'm definitely hungry for more and looking forward to the one-day course!"

Dr Clara Seeger

The Association for Coaching is proud to have a global strategic partnership with the team at RocheMartin, <http://www.rochemartin.com/>. Dr Martyn Newman is fast becoming one of the leaders in the world of emotional intelligence and leadership and his toolset the Emotional Capital Report (ECR) represents an innovation in the measurement of leadership behaviours. It is an exciting advance in our understanding of the building blocks that are scientifically linked to the behaviours of successful leaders.

3 day ECR accreditation training

We will be holding the 3 day training course at the Wallace Space in St Pancras on the 16th, 17th and 18th of May 2012 in London. The course is limited to 20 participants so places for this course will once again go fast. During the course of the 3 days we will hear from Martyn and his team about the advancements of emotional intelligence and how their toolset can support coaches in supporting their corporate and other clients to enhance their leadership capabilities. The toolset is currently utilised globally to aid corporate clients to:

- Develop emotionally intelligent and successful leaders
- Select, recruit and develop managers and leaders
- Build high performing executive, leadership and management team

ECR qualified coaching pool

Attendees will become qualified members of the ECR community and will be able to administer the toolset with their clients. Roche Martin have recently set up location in London as part of their global growth strategy and have recently won a series of significant client assignments with large scale corporate organisations. As part of this journey they need to bring highly qualified corporate coaches into their network to aid them in meeting the requirements of these new clients both in the UK, Europe and Globally.

Martyn and his team see the quality of the coaching community that we have built here in the UK and Europe and so it was a natural fit to identify a partnership with the AC and its community. To this end we have negotiated a 40% discount on the usual cost of this programme – typically £1900 + VAT. In addition to a lower cost for this programme we have also secured additional support materials – books, papers and follow on webexs as part of this package.
